Dear IDG Class of 2027:

As Assistant Dean for Admissions, Student Affairs and Services at Nova Southeastern University College of Dental Medicine (NSU-CDM), we would like to congratulate you on your acceptance and welcome you to the pre-doctoral dental program.

Your future in dentistry is full of exciting possibilities and new opportunities. NSU-CDM will provide you with the knowledge and resources necessary to be successful in your dental education and beyond. NSU-CDM has created a premier learning institution, providing you with opportunities for an enriched experiential learning experience. Our administrative staff and faculty are dedicated to dental education, student learning and excellence in patient-care.

The next four years will be a whirlwind of didactic and laboratory courses, clinical competencies, and patient care. Please remember that the Office of Student Services, as well as the entire College of Dental Medicine administration and faculty are committed to your success and are here to support you.

We look forward to seeing you at orientation on Monday, April 29, 2024. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Office of Student Services.

Sincerely,

The Office of Student Services
